

Camp Philosophy

The primary objective of the Middletown Soccer Camp is to give young players an opportunity to enjoy the game, add to their understanding of the game and enhance their developing foundation which underlies the creativity that all top level soccer players possess.

The camp staff will also promote the concepts of hard work, dedication and determination in achieving one's goals. We hope it will be a fun-filled week for our campers leaving them with new friends and a greater appreciation for the great game of soccer.

Camp Staff

The Middletown Soccer Camp has traditionally staffed its camp with former and current players in the MHS Soccer Program. This year's camp anticipates no change. Both the girl's and boy's programs at MHS have a rich soccer tradition of winning soccer based on strong fundamentals, creative tactics, and a strong commitment to hard work and team chemistry. Many of our counselors and assistant instructors will come from the MHS soccer class of 2007 and many of those players started as MHS soccer campers! Instructors will be college level players or area soccer coaches who have a longstanding relationship with MHS Soccer.
